Virtual Conference: Memory and Representation in Latin America
Congreso Virtual: Memoria y Representación en América Latina

8-10 April 2021<sup>1</sup>

Thursday 8th April // Jueves 8 de abril

Session 1, 15:00-16:30 (UK) // 09:00-10:30 (COL)

Welcome video and opening remarks from Prof Claire Taylor (University of Liverpool)
Followed by the Sew and Talk Cultural Projects Discussion Workshop

As this will be a virtual workshop, we encourage you to work on your own project while we have the conversation. This could be knitting, sewing, artwork or potting up plants in the garden. We would love you to take this opportunity to reflect on cultural projects, memory, academia and activism with us, while also doing whatever nourishes you best.

If you would like to sew with us, but you do not have a current sewing project, we can send you simple suggestions of embroideries that address human rights issues. If you need this, please email lornadillon@protonmail.com for suggestions.

Session 3, 18:30-20:00 (UK) // 12:30-14:00 (COL)

Panel 3a – Conflict Textiles Workshop: Following the Footsteps of the Disappeared

Speakers: Roberta Bacic, Founder of Conflict Textiles and Breege Doherty

Focusing on the present online exhibition at the Ulster Museum Following the footsteps of the disappeared, we will commence with a screening of the exhibition film (6.48 minutes). This shows the pieces displayed live, in conversation with the Conflict Textiles team. This will be complemented by a brief presentation on the Conflict Textiles online archive by Gillian Robinson. We will then shift our focus to Tras las huellas de los/as desaparecidos/as / Following the footsteps of the disappeared, an exhibition in Osorno, Chile, marking International Day of the Disappeared, 30th August 2019, which has its genesis in curator Roberta Bacic's work with children of the disappeared (1985-1988).

Thirdly, we will screen a 90-second clip of a film made in 1987 amidst the Pinochet dictatorship era and which the Museum of Memory in Chile re-mastered in 2019. Filmmaker Gayla Jamison will join us from Atlanta and show a three-minute clip of her film Scraps of Life, filmed in Chile in 1989 with original footage of that period. She will briefly refer to her experience while there. Ana Zlatkes, textile artist with two pieces in the exhibition will join us for three minutes from Buenos Aires and will comment about her work on this subject.

Esther Pardo will facilitate a 15-minute participatory exercise focused on arpilleras within the exhibition. Esther Vital will briefly refer to arpillera workshops she facilitated in Brazil (2011) from which several arpilleras "were born", one of which is part of the exhibition.

Curator Roberta Bacic will close the session focusing on the forthcoming textile display at the Ulster Museum, Belfast (30th August 2021), which will mark the 10th anniversary of the inaugural observance of the International Day of the Victims of Enforced Disappearances in 2011. Bacic will also refer to the journey of this exhibition which will be exhibited in Mexico City, January-February 2022. The final phase of this exhibition will take place at the Memorial of Political Resistance, Sao Paulo, March 2022; the location for the “Arpilleras of Chilean political resistance” exhibition (2011). Email: roberta.conflictextiles@gmail.com
