

APPEALS AND COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE FOR APPLICANTS

Consent Form for applicants requesting that a third party act on their behalf

Section 1.9 of the University's Appeals and Complaints Procedure states that appeals and complaints may be submitted by an individual but not by a third party (school, parent or other representative), unless the third party has the explicit consent, in writing, from the applicant to act on their behalf. Applicants who wish to be represented by such a third party should complete the consent form below and submit it with the Admissions Appeals and Complaints Form. The University will not deal with any third party unless this consent form has been completed.
